

HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS

Shasta Nelson's "Frientimacy"

Frientimacy is any relationship where two people feel really seen in a way that feels satisfying and safe for both of them.

Consistency

Regularity and predictability necessary for two people to trust each other. As we get to know each other better, the left arm extends as the consistency increases.

Vulnerability

The willingness to let someone else impact us. Vulnerability is anything that makes us feel we put ourselves "out there," as well as anything that "let's them in."

Positivity

Positivity is at the base of the triangle because a relationship cannot start or grow without it. Pathways to positivity: amusement, awe, gratitude, hope, inspiration, interest, joy, love, pride, and security.

HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS

Shasta Nelson's "Frientimacy"

We all tend to find that some circles of friends come to us more naturally, but we all need people in every circle.

Contact

Confirmed

Community

Committed

CONTACT: Linked because we have something in common.

COMMON: Intentionally spend time together, but friendship is based on one commonality.

CONFIRMED: Shared history, but no a regular connection anymore.

COMMUNITY: Spend regular time together, deeper relationship.

COMMITTED: Intimately and consistently share lives with each other.

REFLECTION:

Which circle do you wish was fuller, stronger, or more meaningful?

REFLECTION:

What surprised you?

REFLECTION:

Which circle is the hardest for you to develop? Why?

REFLECTION:

Which circle do you want to celebrate?

REFLECTION:

Which circle expresses your greatest loneliness right now?

HOW TO MAKE FRIENDS

Shasta Nelson's "Frientimacy"

All friendships start on the left side no matter how much we're attracted to each other. It's less about simply discovering the right friend, and more about developing the right friendship.

Put a star on the circle that represents your greatest loneliness right now. Now look to the left. Which circle(s) contains the best "pool" of friends to develop?

How can you develop those friendships?

EIGHT WAYS TO EASE THE PAIN OF LONELINESS

Emma Seppala

"We thrive in community, in connection, in giving and receiving love."

Embrace Loneliness

Give the emotion full expression.

Go into silence.

Engage in mindful meditation.

Cultivate Connection

Take care of your body.

Connect with nature.

Serve others.

Practice loving-kindness meditation.

Fall in love with yourself.

LOVING KINDNESS MEDITATION

“The difference between misery and happiness depends on what we do with our attention.”
-- Sharon Salzberg

May you be happy.

May you be healthy.

May you be peaceful.

May you be safe.

1. Sit comfortably, close your eyes if it feels right to you.
2. Focus on these loving kindness messages.
3. Imagine receiving these messages from those who love you.
4. Imagine sending these messages to people you love.
5. Imagine sending these messages to people who are neutral.
6. Imagine sending these messages to all living beings.

MEANINGFUL QUESTIONS

For Developing Friendships

Daring greatly means the courage to be vulnerable. It means to show up and be seen. To ask for what you need. To talk about how you're feeling. To have the hard conversations.
