

LET'S CONNECT WITH THE AAPI COMMUNITY

Virtual
2 PM-3 PM
April 9th, 16th, 23rd, and 30th

Actor David Wu says that “because the Asian American diaspora is so complex, and there’s so many layers” the Asian American community is constantly made to feel invisible. Issues like mental health, the model minority myth, and the rise of discrimination and hate crimes are not meant to stay silent about. Come join McWell's Senior Fellow Somin Jo for weekly community meetings to connect with fellow peers and talk about topics related to the Asian American experience. All are welcome to join!
